

WCISA Volunteer Work Day Children's Fairyland

October 12-13, 2018 ~ Fairyland in Oakland, CA

Join us for our Annual Volunteer Work Day on October 13th. While working your family can enjoy Fairyland. They will be able to participate in a TreeCircus show to win fun prizes! After they will be able to climb a tree with ropes, helmets, and harnesses. Volunteer tree workers will complete tree and stump removals, tree plantings, and aesthetic and structural pruning.

WCISA has made 5 campsite reservations (not to exceed 40 people total, 8 people per site) available on October 12-13 at Anthony Chabot Campground. First come - first serve.

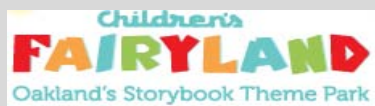

If you prefer to camp with your RV or stay in a hotel you are on your own. Below are a list of local options:

RV camping at The Fairpark Campground at Alameda County Fairground. Please make reservations at <http://thefairparkrv.com/index.php/park-rates/> or call (925) 246-3340

Nearby hotels: <https://www.tripadvisor.com/Hotels-g32810-Oakland-California-Hotels.html>

Arbor Camp: Share climbing skills with others and learn new techniques. Practice your tree worker climb with WCISA Coaches.

Fairyland: Opened by respected nursery owner Arthur Navlet in 1950. Fairyland features fairy-tale sets and farm animals! Children's Fairyland continues to hold fast to its founding vision - to be a magical fantasy world where children can create, imagine, play, and learn.
